Dr. Janet Hoskins, Warden and Vice-Chancellor of St. John's College, noted the following about the service which Archbishop Weisgerber has contributed: "a long history of dedicated ministry to the people of Saskatchewan and Manitoba, including a strong ecumenical focus; his work in "the reconciliation of aboriginal and non-aboriginal communities in Saskatchewan and Manitoba," and his role in helping to organize "the historic encounter in Rome between the Pope and a delegation of former students at residential schools, which went so far in helping to address the deep concerns of the aboriginal community."

The President of the Canadian Conference of Catholic Bishops (CCCB), Bishop Pierre Morissette , has sent a letter of congratulations to Archbishop Weisgerber on behalf of all the Bishops of Canada.
