

The Office national de liturgie of the French Sector of the Canadian Conference of Catholic Bishops (CCCB) has published the Spring 2017 edition of its electronic liturgical publication

Vivre et célébrer

. This is the second electronic issue since the magazine launched its new format in November 2016. The new issue focuses on liturgical formation and includes summaries of a number of the presentations at the annual conference of

Societas Liturgica

, an international society for liturgical study and renewal, which was held in Quebec City during 2015.

Vivre et célébrer

is a resource for reflection and formation in liturgical and sacramental life. Its target readership are those working in the area of liturgy as well as others simply wanting to deepen their faith through a better understanding of the liturgy. To obtain a subscription, requests should be sent by email to the Office national de liturgie

onl@cecc.ca or by phoning (613) 241-9461, ext. 137. Subscriptions are free.

Link to the spring edition (in French only)