Verse 1:

Alone at the well, we long for peace;
we forget where love truly dwells.
Still we feel drawn in; there is wholeness in the deep.
We are open to the story that it tells.

Verse 2:

What is God doing in this encounter with Christ who sees the beaten down?
She takes the first step, now he has found her.
She becomes the water all around.

Verse 3:

Standing and strong, she knows her heart.
The journey in this love has just begun.
She is curious and trusting.
He is listening from the start;
an invitation through the love of God' own Son.
