INSTRUCTION
THE INTERIM ADAPTATION OF PARTICULAR CALENDARS

The Decree of the Sacred Congregation of Rites for the promulgation of the new general Roman calendar determines that the Calendars and Propers of offices and Masses be revised, "taking into account the norms referring to the plan of the liturgical year". In order to make this task easier and more certain, this Sacred Congregation for Divine Worship gives the following appropriate indications and norms.

During the interim period, for the year 1970 and until the typical edition of the liturgical books has been completed, these norms shall be observed:

1. The celebrations which are also included in the general calendar shall be observed in the same manner in which they are listed there.

2. Proper celebrations which have been included in particular calendars up to the present time shall be retained and shall be observed in the same manner as the celebrations retained in the general calendar, namely:

   a) Feasts of Class I, which are retained as solemnities in the new table of liturgical days, shall become solemnities;
   b) Feasts of Class II, which are retained as feasts in the new table of liturgical days, shall be celebrated as feasts;
   c) Feasts of Class III shall be considered obligatory memorials. In occurrence with an obligatory memorial of the general calendar for the year 1970, one or the other may be chosen ad libitum by the celebrant;
   d) Commemorations shall become memorials ad libitum, if they occur on days on which they may be celebrated; otherwise, that is, if these commemorations fall on the day on which there is a solemnity, a feast, or an obligatory memorial, they shall be omitted.

3. The same norms given above shall be applied also to the feasts of Beati who may be listed in particular calendars.

NEW CLASSIFICATION OF LITURGICAL DAYS

According to the norms given in the new Roman Calendar, issued March 21, 1969, all feasts of Our Lord, the Blessed Virgin and the Saints are to be distinguished and named as follows:

SOLEMNITY

MEMORIAL

\{(Obligatory, Optional)\}

Solemnity

This is the highest class of celebration which commences at 1st Vespers and includes all feasts which formerly were designated as Class I, e.g. Corpus Christi, or Assumption of B.V. Mary.

Feast

Under this heading come feasts which formerly were designated as Class II, e.g. St. James, Ap. (July 25) or Transfiguration of Our Lord, (August 6).

Memorial

This term is now used for feasts which formerly were designated as Class III, e.g. St. Francis of Assisi (October 4) or St. Bruno (October 6). Some of these Memorials are considered to have some appeal throughout the universal Church and their celebration is therefore obligatory (Obligatory Memorial, e.g. St. Francis of Assisi). Other Memorials are considered to have less universal appeal and their celebration is therefore optional (Optional Memorial, e.g. St. Bruno).

The Canadian Ordo for 1970 (Liturgical Calendar) will indicate the classification of all feasts by using the new as well as the old terminology, as for example, “Epiphany of the Lord,” Solemnity (I cl.), “Baptism of the Lord,” Feast (II cl.); St. Anthony, Abb., Memorial (III cl.).
