Note to Applicants:

Media covering the CCCB annual Plenary should be aware that there is a strict policy in place for requesting interviews with a Bishop. In order to coordinate the interview requests, all applicants must submit their request(s) on this form below, clearly indicating the purpose of the coverage. Only requests received in written form on this application will be taken into consideration.

Journalists are also invited to attend the daily web briefing on Monday if they wish and/or to follow it during the week on the CCCB website.

Please provide the name of the Archbishop / Bishop / Eparch you would like to interview and the question(s) that you would like to raise:

The CCCB reserves the right to accept or deny interview requests.

Please do not approach the Bishops at any time the course of the week including coffee breaks or meals. There will however be locations provided for TV, radio and print interviews.

Members of the media will be informed of news conference rules prior to the event.

All accredited media are required to abide by these regulations. No registration will be feasible during the Plenary. You must be registered beforehand as indicated.

The CCCB reserves the right to deny accreditation, to refuse entry to any member of the media, and to revoke accreditation at any time.
